These students are the sophomore representatives, Nadine Neal, Kaisen Mitchell, Truth Huletty-Netter. Welcome to the SMA SAC meetings, we will recognize your opinions and ideas. Headmasters Report: FTE funding is put in the reserve for use, SMA has worked very hard to earn this funding. The Parade went very well and there was a great positive turn out from our parents the Bar-B-Q was a great success. We are starting a waiting list for next year's incoming students. The Tuesday tours are still under way we welcome prospective students and parents each week. We are waiting for the school grade to be awarded. This encompasses many factors. We had a very successful independent audit and the results reflect the hard work from Col.Cork and Peg Cork. We are now an ACT & SAT test site. The first SAT will be December 4th. Thank you goes out to Pam Donehew for making this happen. Old Business: Wreath Across American is on December 11th at the Veterans cemetery. We will have about 1200 plus wreaths sponsored for the wreath placed at the Cemetery headstones. This has been a great program to take part in thanks goes out to PTCC. New Business: The raffle team state competition is December 11th in Lake Wales. The Military Ball is the same day. The ball is at the Sarasota Convention Center and the festivities start at 6 p.m. until 10:30 p.m. Joshua Payne brought up the idea to have someone teach ballroom dancing to the upper class in the JROTC classes. A few contacts maybe Barbara Cio, our speech teacher and also a friend of Mrs. Marx. Cadet Loyd has volunteered to research this idea. The Snap Grade program is working out well. This is meeting the
